

Courthouse Hotel Kempinski

The Courthouse Hotel Kempinski boasts cutting edge conference facilities for over 200 plus a 94 seat state of the art screening room, spa with swimming pool and gym, roof terrace, three restaurants, (including Silk) and 112 luxury bedrooms including fantastic penthouse and suits.

Situated in a former Magistrates court, this Grade II listed building retains much of its original splendour. The Silk restaurant has been converted from the old Number One Courtroom. Framed by original English Oak panelling and lit by a superb vaulted glass ceiling, the Judges bench, dock and witness stand are as they were in the days of the magistrates' court. Silk's menu is an experience along the 'silk route' through Italy, the Middle East and Asia providing exemplary dishes from different cuisines.

The arresting impression of the bar is immediate, with its stylish décor, which skilfully fuses the hotels historic influences with fresh design thinking. Other unique features include the jail cells in The Bar.

The various chambers at Courthouse Hotel Kempinski consist of interchangeable seating, conference rooms, break-out rooms and banqueting areas for up to 250 people.

'The Release' is possibly one of the largest state-of-the art private cinemas in London, seating nearly 100 people in comfort and style.
